

IT'S A LOT LIKE OUR SCREENING PROCESS.
JUST NOT NEARLY AS TOUGH.

Sure, our candidates go through a rigorous screening process. Extensive background checks. One-on-one interviews. Reference checks. But that's likely why more than 90% of our business is from repeat customers. And why we're the largest executive search firm specializing in construction.

If you have a tough position to fill, contact a Kimmel representative today. Our process may be tough on candidates. But that's what makes it so easy for you.
